Special Guest Lecture

Margaret Visser

Author, The Gift of Thanks and The Rituals of Dinner

Thinking Through Food: The Fruitful, the Meaty, the Hard to Swallow

Margaret Visser writes on the history, anthropology, and mythology of everyday life. Her most recent book is The Gift of Thanks, published by HarperCollins. Her previous books, Much Depends on Dinner, The Rituals of Dinner, The Way We Are, and The Geometry of Love, have all been best sellers and have won major international awards, including the Glenfiddich Award for Foodbook of the Year in Britain in 1989, the International Association of Culinary Professionals' Literary Food Writing Award, and the Jane Grigson Award. In 2002 she gave the Massey Lectures on CBC radio, subsequently published as the best-selling book, Beyond Fate. She appears frequently on radio and television, and has lectured extensively in Canada, the United States, Europe, and Australia.
